

Walk 3 - Swallowfield / Nutbean Cemetery

- Approximate distance: 3 to 4 miles
- Suggested start point: The George & Dragon Public House
(Parking also at All Saints' Church, Swallowfield)
- Nearest pub: The George & Dragon Public House, Swallowfield Road
- Places of interest: All Saints' Church, Swallowfield and Nutbean Cemetery
- Outline description of walk: Quite an easy route, fairly flat. Most of the walk is on very minor roads and footpaths. Path follows the River Whitewater for a short distance and also passes the confluence of this river with the River Blackwater. The route also takes the walker past a ford (dogs and children love it!)
- Links with other paths/walks: An extended walk can be taken along footpaths 13 and 14. A link with Walk No. 1, in Riseley, can be made along The Devil's Highway.

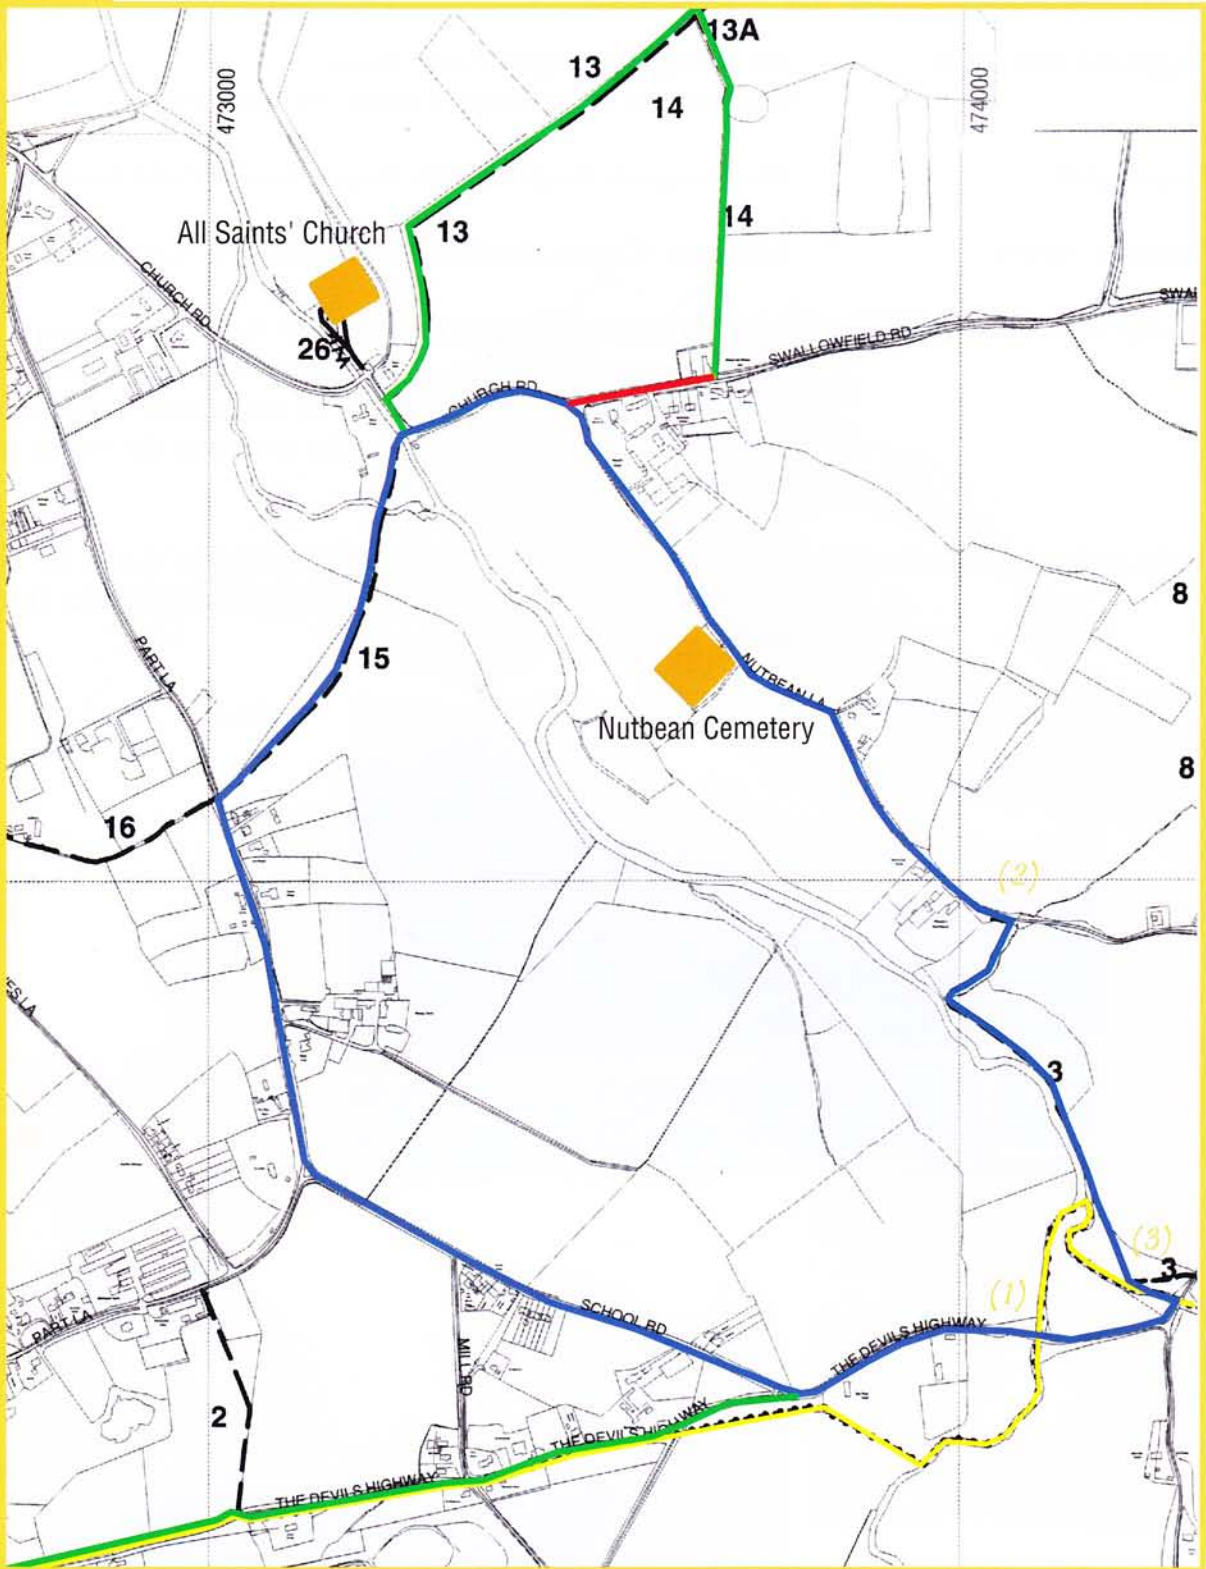

*(1) Bridge over
River Whitewater*

*(2) Nutbean Lane
View across fields towards the river footpath follows edge of field*

Walk 3 - Swallowfield / Nutbean Cemetery

Reproduced from the March 2000 First Consolidated Definitive Map of Public Rights of Way Scale 1:10000 Ordnance Survey Map by permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the controller of Her Majesty's Stationary Office, © Crown Copyright MC 100014001

(3) River Blackwater - The ford (Ford Lane)

*The George and Dragon Public House, Swallowfield
(0118 988 4432)*

*12 noon-3.00pm lunchtime (food orders stop at 2.00pm)
6.00pm-11.00pm evenings (food orders stop at 9.30pm)
Monday-Saturday open during the afternoon for drinks only
Sunday closed between 3.00pm and 6.00pm*

PLEASE
CHECK
TIMES

 Please Note, that although these times were correct at the time of going to print, you are advised to check again before your visit in order to avoid disappointment*